Mailing List Rentals — Order Form

Please fill out this form and send it with a check made out to PJSA, to:
PJSA, Prescott College, 220 Grove Ave., Prescott, AZ 86301

Alternatively, you can purchase mailing lists on our website, at <http://www.peacejusticestudies.org/resources/listrental.php>.

PJSA rents its mailing lists to others in the field who share our mission.

Mailing lists are for one-time use and may not be merged with existing databases.

Currently we offer the following lists:

- PJSA Members (500+ names): Includes current and recently past members. Professors in all disciplines, artists, journalists, psychologists, social workers, clergy, school teachers, university peace studies students, grassroots activists, researchers and mediators.
- University Peace Studies Programs (500+ names): Faculty and directors at worldwide university degree and certificate programs in peace-related fields. The list is separated into national and international programs. A highly-focused, high return list for book sales.
- Publicity List (500+ names): Names of people who have attended our conferences in recent years but didn't become members and people who used our resources (especially to order literature). In addition, the list includes grassroots peace and justice organizations, editors of key newsletters and progressive magazines and teachers who requested peace studies curriculum information. The list includes no current PJSA members.

(Lists are available in the following format: Excel spreadsheet, label-ready.)
